

Aged Care

Industry Overview

Home Care packages. Trying to deliver services to assist elderly people to stay in their own homes and not have to move into permanent care

Job Roles

- Support Workers
- Occupational Therapist
- Nursing
- Case Managers
- Physio

Responsibilities

- To manage a team of case managers delivering home care packages

Skills

- Discrete
- Positive
- Empathetic
- Adept multi-tasker
- Physically fit
- Respectful and professional
- Service-orientated
- Good communication and listening skills
- Responsive and flexible
- Supportive and caring

Qualifications

- Diploma or Degree in Social Welfare or Case Management
- Experience in Case Management
- Experience in Aged Care

Industry Benefits

- No day is ever the same
- Constant challenges, but extremely rewarding

Industry Challenges

- Caseloads – due to case managers needing to have high caseloads of home care clients, at times it can be putting out fires instead of case managing
- Financial and funding restrictions

Why young people should consider this line of work

- Meet the real treasures of this world
- Assisting people to stay in their own homes is a gift

Scan code for more information on this and other industries

Proudly Supported by

