

Ageing and Disability

Industry Overview

Providing support to vulnerable people in our community

Job Roles

- Community Care Workers
- Occupational Therapists
- Allied Health Assistants
- Financial Officers
- Building Services
- Human Resources
- Case Managers
- Physiotherapists
- Administration Office Staff
- Accountants
- Management

Responsibilities

- Administration support
- Assisting clients with mobility
- Assisting in personal hygiene and dressing
- Accompanying aged people and people with disability during daily activities
- Providing companionship, friendship and emotional support

Skills

- To have worked in the Ageing and Disability sector is preferred
- General accounts knowledge
- Computer skills
- Attention to detail
- Able to work in a team/autonomously

Qualifications

- Certificate III in Aged Care and/or Disability sector for care worker
- Case management
- Bookkeeping
- Trade certificates
- Allied Health certificates
- Certified accountants

Industry Benefits

- Making a positive change in the lives of some of our most vulnerable people in our community
- Working with people with a common goal

Industry Challenges

- Workloads can be stressful
- Leaving the job at the office

Why young people should consider this line of work

- Rewarding
- Skills are transferable within the industry
- Good job security
- Opportunity for growth and promotion

Scan code for more information on this and other industries

Proudly Supported by

